DEAR CELTIC JUNCTION ARTS CENTER SUPPORTERS,

We are delighted to share with you the First Annual Report and Strategic Plan for the Celtic Junction Arts Center (CJAC), founded in 2016. In the last three years, we have grown from concept to an organization with four distinct and strong program areas. From 2016 until now, CJAC has produced over 150 concerts, added access to over 4,000 resources through our physical and digital library collections, offered 44 courses on Irish arts and education and connected with over 50,000 people through outreach work, bringing our culture to both large-scale urban audiences and rural areas, with national and international connections and collaborations taking place year-round!

You may also have seen some of our work around the building. CJAC has been growing to assume operations for the facility, expanding the access and functionality for residents and visitors alike. CJAC commissioned a beautiful arts mural for the south wall, designed and managed new signage for Resident Partners, and created a new website with improved access and marketing capability for all classes, concerts and events by CJAC and its Community Partners. Our latest, less obvious developments are providing daytime and event security presence, improving snow removal, updating room scheduling, and helping to grow the recycling/composting program including moving to biodegradable products for events. CJAC now manages building event support, coordinates sound and lighting, and executes cleaning and storage management. We have recently received a grant for improvements to transform Studio 2 into a performance space, and to improve the lobby's café area & services. Watch for more exciting changes soon!

What was originally created in 2009 as a brick and mortar home for like-minded Irish groups has blossomed into a non-profit with over 250 donors and $400k+ in funding. We are so very proud to have received Irish Central’s "Best Irish Cultural Center" in 2018. Looking forward in 2020 and beyond you can expect to see CJAC taking a leading role with other national and global Irish Arts organizations. We are so excited about what we have built with you so far, and are well-positioned to continue to grow into the future. None of this would exist without your presence and your generous support. We hope you enjoy this first-ever overview and update on our programming and operations and look forward to hearing from you about how we can grow CJAC together.

STRAIGHTIC PLAN: WHERE WE ARE HEADING

Celtic Junction Arts Center has been recognized by Ireland’s Government as the Irish Cultural Center of Minnesota. From 2017, CJAC has been involved at the ground level of both the Regional and National conventions just as the Consulates and Embassy are tasking centers to form a collective of similar organizations across the country. CJAC has met with Ambassadors, Consul Generals, and Ministers who seek our voice for this region as they enact their Government’s Global Initiative to double Ireland’s cultural footprint by 2025. CJAC’s engagement with youth and its wide variety of activities and outreach merited special emphasis by the Consulate. We have taken copious records of meetings and presented articles in the Celtic Junction Arts Review so we can share the details with you, our community. New opportunities and exciting partnerships are developing for 2020 already, so watch this space!

OUR PROGRAMS

Eoin McKiernan Library

Minnesota’s only library and archives specially focused on Ireland and the Irish arts. EML’s rich book and music collection is housed in a beautiful reading room open for study, research and exploration. Their exhibitions and online archives celebrate the unique history of Minnesota’s Irish arts community through images and sound.

Irish College of Minnesota

College-quality programming for a community audience. ICM offers classes in Irish language, history, and literature; workshops in poetry, writing, drawing, and other creative arts; and presents free colloquia and lectures to the public.

CJAC Concert Series

Celtic Junction Concert Series brings the best of local, national and international artists and events to the Twin Cities. CJCS serves a multi-generational community with a discount for seniors and free tickets to youth 18 and under!

Irish Outreach Coalition

Celtic Junction Arts Center works with partners in the community to share far and wide the love, knowledge, and understanding of the Irish culture, its unique history, and the traditional arts Ireland is famous for.
CELTIC JUNCTION CONCERT SERIES
The Concert Series has been built on the desire to provide access to and a home for high-quality traditional music in the Twin Cities. What started as a simple concert offering has turned into far more than a stage and space. The community co-curates the events that happen here and are not just spectators, but participants. We are very proud to share that CJAC has been able to bring in world-class musicians, artists, educators, and entertainers and presented over 150 concerts since 2016. What we are even more proud of is the local talent and community events CJAC supports and hosts. The CJAC concert series and venue is a very unique and beloved space in the community.

To ensure that we are accessible to all, concerts and performances are FREE for all people 18 and under, and seniors receive discounts to all concerts and performances in the CJAC series.
EOIN MCKIERNAN LIBRARY

Through good leadership, a devoted team of volunteers and generous supporters, The McKiernan Library has proven itself as a professional organization worthy of our incredible community. We are off to a great start and we are here to stay. We have doubled the initial McKiernan family book donation that established our collection from 2000 to 4000 and added 575 Irish music CDs. Through several pilot projects, we have proven our ability to do exciting, meaningful, local history work that has seeded the beginnings of an archive for the Irish cultural community of Minnesota.

IRISH OUTREACH COALITION

CJAC’s Outreach Program has the broadest work and application of CJAC’s four services. It encompasses all of our work outside the library, classes and concerts, and it “reaches out” in many directions. Together we are:

- Presenting Irish Arts and promoting Irish Education
- Improving and expanding operations for the building

OUTREACH HIGHLIGHTS

- Partnering with Irish Fair of Minnesota for Irish Arts Week 2020

By supporting the Celtic Junction Arts Center, YOU are bringing educational programs to schools, performances and festivals, and getting a seat at the table for local, state, national and global discussions on Irish culture and education. While you might have seen us on PBS’s MN Originals, in Ireland’s USA Road Trip with Daniel O’Donnell on RTE, or spotted us on the dugouts at the St. Paul Saints or onstage at the State Fair or the Festival of Nations, it is our community work we are most proud of. We are honored to work with our Resident Partners and their directors, with whom we share a partnership and collaboration that is irreplaceable. Our Resident Partners include Center for Irish Music, O’Shea Irish Dance, and the Irish Fair of Minnesota. Thank you for your part in making that impact.
The Irish College of Minnesota offers college-quality programming for community audiences across the year with classes ranging from Irish language, to mythology, history, art, literature, musicology, spirituality, and wellness. Our students cross many generations and come to learn about their Irish heritage. They take classes in everything from the Irish language, to how to draw Celtic warriors and goddesses, to how to appreciate the innovative comic fiction of James Joyce. All of our instructors are experts in their areas of study and bring a wealth of knowledge and passion to their topics.

IRISH COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- What started in 2017 with two courses has, as of fall 2019, seen 300 student registrations in 44 classes, taught by 20 expert educators
- In cooperation with the University of Maynooth, CJAC will host the first TEG (Teastas Eorpach Na Gaeilge, or European Certificate in Irish) offered in the MidWest!
- 62% growth in class attendance from 2017-2019
- Colloquia and lectures in partnership with University of St Thomas
- Irish Immersion Weekend: 3-days of intensive Irish study at all levels. The first event of its kind in the Twin Cities, reaching national audiences: Deireadh Seachtaine Gaeilge April 17-19, 2020.

The fall quarter of 2019 was the most successful yet for our Irish College from attendance to revenue to offerings. As 2020 begins, we will quickly achieve a very important milestone with our 300th registration across 44 classes.

The College wants to extend a special thanks to those supporters who sought out Irish language books in Ireland and brought them back to deepen our offerings in the McKiernan Library where our classes take place.

Please come enroll and enjoy our offerings!

Dr. Patrick O'Donnell
"As a Diplomat I'm conscious that we in the Diplomatic Service do not have a monopoly on diplomacy or representing Ireland. Centers such as Celtic Junction remind me that the strength of the relationship between Ireland and the US is – above all else – built on the strong people-to-people links. It is built on showcasing and sharing Irish culture both with people with an Irish heritage and people with no Irish heritage. Our culture is our calling card, it opens doors, it brings people in, and it keeps them interested in Ireland and our culture.

I salute all involved in Celtic Junction for the work that you do to maintain and enhance connections between Ireland and Minnesota. It is heart-warming to experience the vibrancy of this Center, to see such talent in action, and to know that those talents and skills are being handed down to the next generations. On behalf of the Government, Go raibh mile maith agat.” - Brian O’Brien, Consul General of Ireland

"The passion and expertise the leadership at CJAC brings to their mission and work is inspirational and ensures a bright future for Irish culture in Minnesota."

- Kieran Folliard, Founder of Cara Pubs, The Food Building

"As a long-time fan of Celtic dance and music, I've so enjoyed Celtic Junction as a hub for culture and community. I'm proud to support a center that does so much to be a resource for local performers and musicians - and that you are supporting those in the community experiencing hunger. Thank you for everything you do to create a vibrant, healthy community in St. Paul and beyond!" - Kaitlyn Walsh, Marketing & Communications Manager, The Food Group

The Celtic Junction has been my home away from home for over 10 years now. I am so thankful for the time and commitment that the Junction's tireless leaders have put into creating and growing this unrivaled arts center! The Celtic Junction truly is a place where all are welcome to learn, share, express, create, and experience art, dance, music, theatre, and many other forms of expression in a supportive environment. Come experience what CJAC and its resident partners have to offer — you won't be disappointed!
